Fancy dress fundraiser

BY GEORGINA BUTLER

After a busy term preparing for exams, pupils at The Rosemary Lane School of Ballet and Theatre Dance are looking forward to letting their hair down.

It's in a bid to help raise charity cash for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Ballet buns will be unpinned next week when students, based at Foundation House in Wolverton, donate to attend class in their favourite fancy dress, donning past show costumes and styling their hair in weird and wonderful ways.

Principal Rosemary will join family members for the Welsh 3000s Challenge to raise more money in the holidays.

Visit <https://www.justgiving.com/Tetwelsh3000s/> to support the fundraising efforts.
