Students start term en pointe in a new venue

Budding baby ballerinas, aspiring adult apprentices and dedicated dance students are all welcome at a city dance school's brand new venue.

Pupils at The Rosemary Lane School of Ballet and Theatre Dance are starting this term on an energetic high after moving to the refurbished King's Community Centre on Creed Street in Wolverton.

Principal Rosemary Lane said: "The new venue is a very positive move for us. Classes are held daily in grade and vocational grade classical bal-
