

theatre

Tango Moderno

MK Theatre, November 14-18
Everyone knows it takes two to tango and dancing duo Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace are teaming up once again to show us exactly how it's done, writes Georgina Butler.
The former Strictly Come Dancing professionals visit Milton Keynes Theatre with their thrilling new production, Tango Moderno, from Tuesday. News of their return is guaranteed to delight dance devotees who thought they were saying a fond farewell to the couple when they brought their previous show, The Last Tango, to the new city in November 2015. The Last Tango was devised as Vincent and Flavia's final stage spectacular. However, they had so many exciting choreographic ideas that they couldn't resist creating another.

"We love dancing together, we are having so much fun and we are more excited than ever to share this new show with our audiences," Flavia said. The pair have been dance partners for more than two decades and all three of their previous productions – Midnight Tango, Dance 'Til Dawn and The Last Tango – have been smash hits. With Tango Moderno, Vincent and Flavia set out to present a tango for today, promising us an irresistible fusion of ballroom, Latin and Argentine tango...
www.atgtickets.com

Elaine Paige

Milton Keynes Theatre, November 13
She is the undisputed First Lady of Musical Theatre and her Radio 2 programme, cunningly titled Elaine Paige on Sunday, attracts some 2.3 million listeners weekly. Oh, and she's an actress and a producer to boot. Elaine is exceptional. And now she is coming back to the city: "I thought it might make a change to sing something other than music theatre songs," she explained about this new show, "I thought 'What other music do I love? And I came up with the idea of visiting some of the songs I grew up listening to as a young girl. 'More importantly, I wanted to give the lyricists and composers credit, because we listen to songs all the time, but never know who wrote the lyrics... 'It's not just a bunch of covers. It's more than that," she promised.
www.atgtickets.com

Cardboard Animals

Stantonbury Theatre, November 12
A show full of puppet possibility - an accessible, visual production with no text, refreshingly focused on the magic of puppetry to leave audiences inspired by both the animal theatricality of the music and the creative potential of the simple cardboard box.
www.stantonburytheatre.co.uk

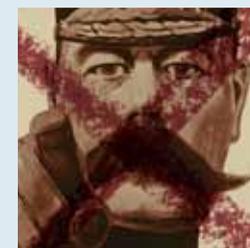

Flight of the Conchords

MK Theatre, March 13-15, 2018
Grammy Award-winning folk comedy duo Flight of the Conchords (Jemaine Clement and Bret McKenzie) sold out their UK and Ireland edition of the 'Flight of the Conchords sing Flight of the Conchords Tour', in a matter of hours. To cater for overwhelming demand, Bret and Jemaine now visit MK.
www.atgtickets.com

Awful Auntie
MK Theatre
Until Nov 12

This Evil Thing
Northampton Royal
November 14

Andy Parsons Peak Bullst

Northampton Royal, November 11
Worried about your job? Worried about your family? Worried about yourself? Worried about the health service? Education? Climate change? World War 3? Worried about worrying? Come and have a laugh about it. Put on your lucky pants and your party shoes – and get yourself on a night out.
www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Stick Man

Northampton Royal, Nov 12-14
What starts off as a morning jog becomes quite the misadventure for Stick Man: a dog wants to play fetch with him, a swan builds a nest with him, and he even ends up on a fire! How will Stick Man ever get back to the family tree? The show is packed full of puppetry, songs, music and funky moves.
www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Ray Mears
Northampton Derngate
November 16

